Director Emeritus

According to Article III, Section E of the Foundation Bylaws, the Nominating Committee is empowered to make recommendations for the category of Director Emeritus. Per the Bylaws, the title of Director Emeritus shall be granted only to a former member of the Board of Directors who, while a member, rendered exemplary and extraordinary service to the Board and thus to Davidson-Davie Community College. Nominees must have served at least two terms or six years; held a leadership position as an officer, Executive Committee member, or committee chair; and made financial contributions. Directors Emeritus will serve as ambassadors in the community and in an advisory capacity to the Foundation. They shall be invited to all Foundation functions and meetings with no voting privileges, receive meeting minutes, and be informed of all activities of the Foundation.

The following people are proposed as new Directors Emeritus:

- Mike Albert
- Elizabeth Gee
- Beth Parrott
- Phyllis Penry
- Walt Rouse
- Terry Renegar
- Paula Turlington
- Jane Whitehurst
